

A Stylish Evening

Richard David Kann (RDK) Melanoma Foundation supporters enjoyed a stylish evening at Carolina Herrera in Palm Beach recently. The event featured cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, and an exclusive presentation of Carolina Herrera's latest collection, all to support the RDK Melanoma Foundation. This chic soirée was organized by the Honorary Chairs of the upcoming RDK Luncheon and Fashion Show: Ellen Merriman, Beth Neuhoff, and Vera Alfieri Serrano, together with Carolina Herrera.

A portion of the sales made was donated to the RDK Melanoma Foundation.

The RDK Melanoma Foundation's Annual Luncheon and Fashion Show is scheduled for Thursday, March 13th, at The Breakers Palm Beach, featuring a runway fashion show with designer Carolina Herrera's 2025 collection direct from New York Fashion Week, presented by world-renowned designer Wes Gordon. The models will wear Yvel jewelry, adding an amazing sparkle of elegance to famous couture fashions.

The American Cancer Society estimates approximately 104,960 new cases of melanoma will be diagnosed in the United States in 2025, and 8,430 people are expected to die from melanoma.

For the past 30 years, the Richard David Kann (RDK) Melanoma Foundation has been dedicated to saving lives through early skin cancer detection education. The Foundation's mission is to inspire people to be proactive in the health of their skin by providing education about the facts of skin cancer, especially melanoma. Through RDK's efforts, both children and adults can learn how to protect themselves and their loved ones from the dangers of the sun and the needed steps for early detection of skin cancer.

Deborah Kann Schwarzberg founded the RDK Melanoma Foundation in memory of her late brother, Richard Kann, who died from a late-detected melanoma. To learn more about RDK Melanoma Foundation and ways to donate and/or get involved visit www.melanomafoundation.com.
